 Writing

PART 1 – IELTS Speaking Test

The examiner asks you about yourself, your home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

Fast food

What kinds of fast food have you tried? [Why/Why not?]

Do you ever use a microwave to cook food quickly? [Why/Why not?]

How popular are fast food restaurants where you live? [Why/Why not?]

When would you go to a fast-food restaurant? [Why/Why not?]

PART 2 – IELTS Speaking Test

Describe some technology (e.g. an app, phone, software program) that you decided to stop using.

You should say:

when and where you got this technology

why you started using this technology

why you decided to stop using it and explain how you feel about the decision you made.

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes. You have one minute to think about what you are going to say. You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

PART 3 – IELTS Speaking Test

Discussion topics:

Computer games

What kinds of computer games do people play in your country?

Why do people enjoy playing computer games?

Do you think that all computer games should have a minimum age for players?

Technology in the classroom

In what ways can technology in the classroom be helpful?

Do you agree that students are often better at using technology than their teachers?

Do you believe that computers will ever replace human teachers?

WRITING

WRITING TASK 1

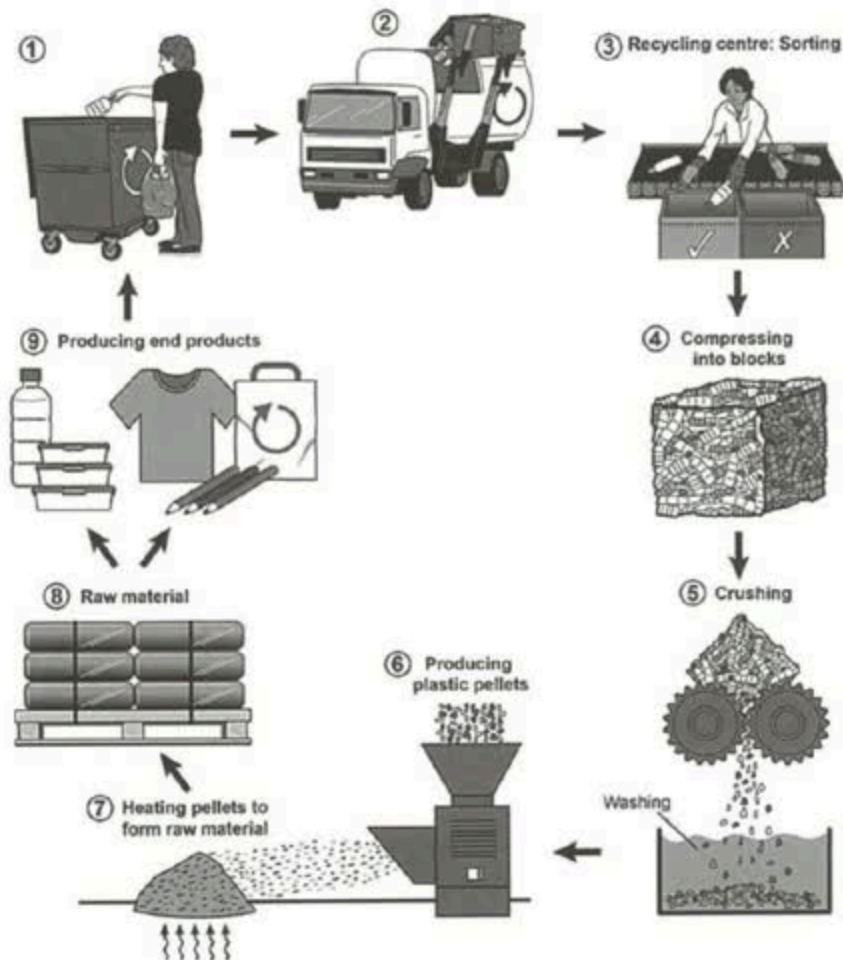

You should spend about 20 minutes on this task.

The diagram below shows the process for recycling plastic bottles.

Summarise the information by selecting and reporting the main features, and make comparisons where relevant.

Write at least 150 words.

How plastic bottles are recycled

WRITING TASK 2

You should spend about 40 minutes on this task.

Write about the following topic:

In the future all cars, buses and trucks will be driverless. The only people travelling inside these vehicles will be passengers.

Do you think the advantages of driverless vehicles outweigh the disadvantages?

Give reasons for your answer and include any relevant examples from your own knowledge or experience.

Write at least 250 words.
